

I have been a licensed radio amateur for 43 years and have seen many changes in or hobby. It is now time to eliminate the requirement for morse code in the license process.